Accommodations in the Castro

Unfortunately, the Castro does not offer a wide range of places to stay. For lodging, your main options consist mostly of charming bed and breakfasts that are priced at a reasonable rate. Below are SFGAM's top picks.

24 Henry Guesthouse

24 Henry Street (between Noe St & Sanchez St)
(415) 864-5686

An inexpensive yet elegant bed and breakfast. 24 Henry offers five guest rooms with some private rooms and some rooms with shared bath. All rooms have free WiFi, phone and voicemail. Continental breakfast included in the nightly rates. Rates start at $75 per night plus tax.

Inn On Castro

321 Castro Street (between 16th St & States St)
(415) 861-0321

A town house bed and breakfast in a restored Edwardian building. The entire inn has a lot of charm and is highly recommended for gay travelers. Rates start at $95 for a single room to $220 for a four person apartment.

Sam and Joel's Castro Suite

927 14th St (between Divisadero and Fillmore)
(415) 437-1783

An apartment that visitors can rent. Features two fully furnished apartments that consists of a living room, a fully equipped kitchen and a dining area. Each suite can accommodate up to 4 people. Suites cost $200 per apartment per night for 1-2 guests and $220 per apartment per night for 3-4 guests.

The Parker Guest Hotel

520 Church Street (between 17th St & Dorland St)
(415) 621-3222

A quaint bed and breakfast that is geared towards the gay community. The Parker Guest hotel features two lounges, a library, a steam room and a wine social. Rates start from $129 for an economy queen to $239 for a King Suite.

Village House

4080 18th Street (between Castro St & Hartford St)
(415) 864-0994

From the owners of 24 Henry. A five room bed and breakfast in a 100 year old Victorian. Offers free DSL, WiFi, a public email station and a continental breakfast buffet every morning. Rates start at $95 a night plus tax.

Willows Inn

710 14th St (between Belcher St & Church St)

(415) 431-4770

A European style bed and breakfast, the Willows Inn offers 12 rooms with shared baths. Room amenities include a kimono, a mini-fridge, TV/VCR and WiFi. Continental breakfast and a cocktail hour are also included. Rates start at $95 a night.
